Church on the East.

At a meeting of the members of St. Johannes German Lutheran church it was decided that the congregation should purchase the lot adjoining the church on the east and there erect a new modern house for a parsonage. The exact size and cost of the house was not determined upon. In fact, nothing further than the mere decision to purchase was done.

It will be decided later at what time the building will be begun and as to the cost and size of the parsonage.

Communion services will not be held for two or three weeks yet. The services yesterday morning were the same as usual.

SOCIETIES MAKING GOOD ADVANCES

Organizations In The Herald's Big Contests Are Starting On An Interesting Race

PRIZES ARE ATTRACTION TO ALL

Not Yet Far Enough Along to Speculate As to Who Are Winners

Contest No. 1.—Piano to the most popular school, lodge, society or organization in the City of Decatur.
Contest No. 2.—Piano to the most popular school, lodge, society or organization in the towns outside of Decatur.
Contest No. 3.—A week's vacation trip for the most popular district school teacher; all expenses paid by the Herald.

RULES OF CONTEST.

The school, lodge, society or organization receiving the largest number of votes will be declared the most popular in Decatur.
A ballot will be printed in the Herald daily, which will count two votes for any one school, lodge, society or organization either in Contest No. 1 or No. 2 or for any one teacher in contest No. 3.
The ballots must be neatly cut from the paper, the name of the contestant for which the vote is to be cast written plainly in the space for that purpose, the ballots must be enclosed in an envelope with the number of votes marked on the outside, together with the name of school, lodge, society etc., that is being voted for. These ballots will be void if not voted within ten days after they are printed in the paper and the date of expiration will be printed on each ballot.

VOTING BY SUBSCRIPTION.

A subscription ballot will be published in the Herald each day, which may be used for voting when it is accompanied by a paid in advance subscription. The number of votes allowed will be determined by the term of the subscription as follows:

1 week's subscription in advance, $1.00, counts	10 votes
4 weeks' subscription in advance, .40, counts	50 votes
3 months' subscription in advance, 1.25, counts	500 votes
6 months' subscription in advance, 2.50, counts	1000 votes
9 months' subscription in advance, 3.75, counts	1500 votes
12 months' subscription in advance, 5.00, counts	2000 votes

The above is the rate in effect in Decatur and the surrounding towns where the Herald is delivered by carrier. All money must be sent direct to the Herald Office and local agents will receive credit for the money paid. When the Herald is sent by mail the subscription rate and the vote will be as follows:

1 month's subscription in advance $.35, counts	50 votes
3 months' subscription in advance 1.00, counts	500 votes
6 months' subscription in advance 2.00, counts	1000 votes
9 months' subscription in advance 3.00, counts	1500 votes
12 months' subscription in advance 4.00, counts	2000 votes

On subscriptions which are in arrears one vote will be allowed for each cent paid. Thus, one week's subscription would count ten votes; $1.50 paid on an arrear would count 150 votes.

Subscription ballots must be voted when the money is paid at the Herald office and the money must accompany the ballots.

The relative position of the contestants in each contest will be shown each day in the Herald.

The contest will close on April 25th.

I. O. O. F. No. 266, Mt. Zion	1233

Contest No. 3.
For the most popular teacher of a district school:

Irma Montgomery, Marion R. R.	1335
Maude Stitch, Decatur R. R.	500
Miss I. E. Gouge, Nevada School	500

Sunday was a quiet day in the contest; only a few coupon ballots were voted and they were largely for the Decatur Cadets. Quite a number of people paid subscriptions Saturday night after Saturday's vote was counted and these votes were counted yesterday.

The most noticeable changes were made in the standing of the Modern Woodmen of America Camp No. 1626, and the Marionette street school in Contest No. 1 and by I. O. O. F. No. 266, Mt. Zion and the W. R. C. of Cerro Gordo.

Although the M. W. A. Camp No. 1626 only entered the race Saturday they have received 2514 votes and are in fourth place in the contest.

In the last two days Marionette street school has moved from next to last place to third place. The Marionette street school is a very popular school and is likely to receive a big vote.

Remember This.
Every paper has a coupon which you can cut out and vote. It counts two votes for any lodge, school, society, organization or country school teacher that you desire to vote for. Let the children clip them out of the paper and send them to the Herald office.

AT THE BIJOU.

A good bill has been arranged for the Bijou theater this week. The main attraction of the program is the comedy, specialty by Fay Coley and Fay which is one of the best black face turns yet introduced at the Bijou.

The San Francisco Times has the following to say regarding this trio:
The Columbia theater, St. Louis, has furnished this act, which came direct from that house to the Interstate circuit. Fay, Coley and Fay, known as the minstrels, gave a hodge-podge of singing, dancing and broad farce humor, interspersed with laughable horseplay of a refined character. Their absurdities belong to the old time minstrel method of entertainment, brought up to the modern satire and joke. One of the clever bits of play in which they indulge is the burlesque of the up-to-date street car conductor, who collects two fares, one for himself and the second for the corporation. The song sheet is introduced for another parody on illustrated songs. The pictures used are atrocious and turn the whole thing into extravagant farce. The entire act is done in blackface and the cast consists of one woman and two men. As there is no pretension of seriousness the feature must be received in the vein of an utter piece of ridiculous fun.

Moving Pictures.
The train robbers picture will be another fine part of the program. These pictures show the holdup of the express train and illustrate the real western life, including cowboys and bandits and exciting scenes, some of which are the chase of the bandits and the dance hall in Montana and the series end with a picture of Barnes, the outlaw.

Let Liquor Alone.
The speaker appeared to men to abstain from liquor and said he was just beginning to what his knife against whiskey as he was passing the grindstone and would say something about whiskey before leaving town.

For an hour he spoke to the men who sat spellbound by his forceful and eloquent lecture.

After an hour of warnings to men, the evangelist said he had painted a dark picture and would close with the bright picture of motherhood. He then described his training by his mother. He said that the greatest fact in the life of George Washington was his love for his mother.

Had Book Ready.
He asked the men to live up to the mother-line of life. Nearly every man in the audience came forward when he asked them to advance and shake hands on the proposition of leading a better life and receiving a book.

Dr. Culpepper had a collection of little books for men only and these were distributed. He said he would not sell anything on Sunday but he had a hat ready and said anyone who cared to could drop a coin in the hat, anything from a dollar to a dime.

ASKED TO HELP REVIVAL.

Women Requested Not to Say Anything Against It.
The main floor of the auditorium of the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon was filled to its capacity with young and old ladies to hear Rev. W. N. Conoley. The text was taken from the 11th Chapter of John, 28th verse, "The Master is come and calleth them." The theme of the sermon was to show the attitude of the people toward the present revival. At the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Conoley asked that everyone who was willing to promise not to say or do anything to impede the work and to do what they could to help to come by and shake hands with him, nearly every one in the church came.

Rev. Burke Culpepper after leading the young people's meeting at the Congregational church, returned to the Temple to lead the choir in a song or two and then went to the Congregational church to preach at the overflow meeting.

The evangelist, John B. Culpepper, made a plea for several business men to come forward and give enough money to put up a $500 tabernacle to accommodate the crowds who want to come to the meetings. The greatest crowd yet seen thronged the temple to hear him preach. He said: "We ought to have 1000 conversions in this meeting and will if all get to work. Everything is coming our way as you can see."

The speaker showed how prosperity had destroyed the spiritual life of the people and said that prosperity does not help people. The more people get the less they give in proportion. A fellow that's got a dollar can give a quarter easier than he who has $100.00 can give $10.00. A man who never has any adversity is too often arrogant. He rarely knows how to be otherwise. Men have never thought who do not believe in a hell. They have not looked facts in the face.

Among other things the speaker said: called on his fellow worker to tell him how to prepare to meet God, that fellow would know how to point the way about this matter. You all know how to prepare. You have no excuse. You cannot plead ignorance. Prepare to meet God."

The evangelist gave a thrilling description of the Galveston flood to illustrate the way men are swept suddenly, unprepared, to judgment. At the close of the evangelist's sermon an invitation was given to all who desired prayer to raise their hands. Many hands went up. Afterwards several came forward and gave their names as having decided to connect themselves with church life.

A big aftermeeting was held. Fifteen professed conversions at the Congregational church and twenty-four at the overflow meeting.

FIVE MEETINGS HELD SUNDAY

Dr. Culpepper Speaks to Men and Mr. Conoley to the Women.

ATTENDANCE IS GOOD.

Overflow Meeting Is Held at Congregational Church.

Dr. Culpepper talked to a crowded house Sunday afternoon. The meeting was for men and all available space in the tabernacle was occupied. These men represented almost every calling in life, doctors, lawyers, merchants, railway men, clerks, mechanics, and day laborers composing the congregation. There were not half a dozen boys in the crowd.

Rev. Burke Culpepper was at his post and had the men singing early. A company of fifty men composed the choir. The men sang enthusiastically such songs as "Sweet Bye and Bye," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

Dr. Culpepper spoke of the divine origin of the family. He said he would rather have his daughter marry a man youthful and inexperienced than have her marry a man rich and rotten.

He said tobacco and whisky both have contributed to the ruin of man's purity and that whisky explains very largely the debauched condition of the negro in the south. The negro was not a factor of danger to the family life of the south until after the war when he got loaded up on whisky.

The speaker appeared to men to abstain from liquor and said he was just beginning to what his knife against whiskey as he was passing the grindstone and would say something about whiskey before leaving town.

For an hour he spoke to the men who sat spellbound by his forceful and eloquent lecture.

POLICE SPOIL SUNDAY GAME

Sixteen Young Men Arrested for Gambling on East Main.

ALL GAVE A BOND.

James Keith Was Charged With Being Keeper.

"Fellers, we're plucked!" yelled one of a crowd of sixteen young fellows gathered in a house on East Main street where was found some gambling apparatus. The bunch looked up and saw the forms of five burly policemen. Then they tried to scatter, but it was no use. One or two escaped but the rest took a ride in blue wagon with red wheels and rubber tires.

The police made a raid Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on a house owned by Mrs. Brown in the 300 block of East Main street. The lower part of the place is rented by James Keith and in this he has been running a gambling house and a gambling room.

Was Surprised.
It has been known to the police for some little time that Keith was running a gambling room there, and several warrants for his arrest had been sworn out. But the police thought they would rather wait and catch the whole bunch right in the thick of a good game. Through one of their many sources, they got the tip that there was a game on foot the afternoon and five policemen, Peck, Dunnigan, Morton, Kerk, and Muthersbaugh, were dispatched to the house to pluck the bunch.

The entire gang was brought to police headquarters to which place Justice McCoy was called. Keith was the first called upon to produce and he did so with $27.50. The next was Charles Karkon who amused the crowd by giving the name, "Carrie Nation." Justice McCoy told him that was a good name and told to work with him. The rest of the fellows gave bonds in the sum of $12.50 each.

She Did Not Know.
Mrs. Brown, the lady who owns the house, in speaking of the matter said to the police that she had repeatedly given Keith notice to move out and that once she had served a notice on him to that effect. He seemed not to be in a moving disposition and would not get out.

When asked if she knew of the presence of the gambling she said that she did not and had never suspected that such a thing was being carried on in her house.
Two padded tables and a large box of poker chips were taken from the house and are now in the police station. The sixteen men who were captured in the joint were taken to police headquarters where Justice McCoy was waiting to release them. They were released on bond. They will appear part on Tuesday and part on Wednesday, for their hearings before Justice McCoy.

BUT A DROP IN THE BUCKET

Business In Decatur Small as Compared With Receipts It Helps Swell.

1905 POULTRY TRADE

At New York Shows Some Enormous Totals.

When on the first of the current month Max Atlas finished the work of filling some special contracts, having in forty-five days shipped from this city over 500,000 pounds of dressed poultry, comment was made to the effect that he had had a heavy business for it had averaged more than $1000 a day. At the time Mr. Atlas said that his shipments were as a drop in the bucket and that if his twenty-six cars of dressed poultry had not been sent to the eastern markets they would not have been missed. That then seemed a bit overdrawn. The business seemed enormous here but when compared with the totals furnished in New York City they are small indeed. Here are some figures:

The New York Produce Review, a trade paper, has just published the statistics for the year 1905, covering everything in the produce market showing the receipts at the New York market.

Dressed poultry, 631,054 packages, aggregating 107,279,150 pounds at an average value of 15c a pound, worth $17,164,669.

It is the same way with eggs. Mr. Atlas shipped almost 1,000 cases of eggs during the early storage season. That is a big lot for one town and amounted to more than twenty car loads but it was a drop compared with the 3,581,631 cases received during the year in New York City. The average price there for the year was 20 cents per dozen so that the total value of the egg receipts were $22,206,112.

Mr. Atlas is a heavy shipper as an individual, but beside the enormous totals shown in New York his business is but a drop in the bucket.

Local Receipts Heavy.
The week ending Saturday night was the heaviest ever known in poultry receipts at this season of the year in Decatur and amounted to upwards

TUSCOLA

NATIONAL LECTURER
OF W.C.T.U. IN TUSCOLA

Mrs. Shessa Blaine Lectures
to Big Audience Wednesday Night.

Tuscola, Ill., May 17.—Mrs. Shessa Blaine, national lecturer of the W.C.T.U., was in Tuscola, and lectured to a good audience at the first W.C.T.U. Wednesday evening of the season. Mrs. Blaine was introduced by Miss Blanche Caraway, one of the vice presidents of the Tuscola Auxiliary, and held the most attentive of her hearers during the hour she spoke. She talked more of the outlook for prohibition, only touching on the retrospective view, and all that she said was replete with encouragement for the ultimate and not very distant overthrow of the giant evil of the day. As a bit of current up-to-date news in the way of statistics she stated the fact that out of the 4,848 cities, towns and villages in the state of Tennessee, all are "dry" so far as the legalized sale of liquor is concerned, save four, and the home of the "Whiskey" is dry. Mrs. Blaine's address was "The Women of the Local Organization and Its Friends in a meeting at the home of Mrs. J. H. Wainwright, on "Legislative and Petition Work," and told of many victories won by the women of these lines. Mrs. Blaine is well informed in these matters, as she has been a factor in national legislative committees for several years, and is able to present information in a clear and convincing way, enlightening her hearers.

A. A. Robinson, who has been in there had been no other certain cure. The wonderful Cain treatment does not only "benefit" it cures. Cures to stay.

The Cain Treatment is of such a nature that it cannot be taken by the patient himself. It must be administered either by your own physician or by us at our sanitarium here. This very fact should show you that we offer an honest treatment. If we had a fake remedy that you could take yourself, it would be much easier to sell. Yet we know that an honest remedy, one that really cures, and one that is safe, will pay us better in the long run than a fake. We know, too, that no physician in good standing would dare anything to sell that would not do as claimed.

MOST THOROUGHLY TESTED
The Cain Cancer Treatment has been under investigation with this immediate result: Cancer Patients have been cured right in this vicinity—many of them who had tried other treatments and who had given up hope of ever being rid of this dreadful disease. In not one of these cases has cancer re-appeared since the cure. Many remarkable cures have been made right in this vicinity. Patients who have taken this marvelous cancer cure have been under the watchful attention of a number of the most prominent citizens of this town, with the object that if the treatment proved what its originator claimed for it, they would furnish the capital necessary for the company to be organized to treat all cancer sufferers. As a result, the company is composed of the leading citizens of Decatur, including Dr. Mayor and Banker—men who could not afford to have their names connected with anything of a dishonest nature.

GRADUATION NIGHT AT ILLIOPOLIS A SUCCESS

Entertaining Program and Elegant Decorations
Mark Occasion.

Illiopolis, Ill., May 17.—The seventh annual commencement of the Illiopolis high school was held in the Masonic opera house Friday evening. It was a continuous round of successes and every one of the immense audience was more than pleased. The class of 1907 was composed of one young lady and one young man, who earned and received an honor that will be remembered with honest pride throughout all the years of usefulness before its members. The members of the class were John H. Maxwell and Miss Gertrude Chioe Sims. The stage was uniquely decorated with the class colors, crimson and gold, and palms, ferns and cut flowers were used to give it an air of festivity. The words "Class of '07" in the crimson and gold showed in prominence.

At 8 o'clock Miss June Myers took her seat at the piano and rendered a recital of instrumental music consisting of the following numbers: "Scarlet Dance"—Chopin; "Gondoliers"—Nevin; "Concerto Amoreosa"—Nevin; "Pavane March"—Cavalleri de Kontski.

As the last piece was being played the curtain went up and the graduates, Superintendent H. H. Kirkpatrick, Assistant Superintendent Mrs. Bernice Nelson, and the honorable board of education, viz: Dr. J. W. D. Myers, H. M. Faith, W. N. Chase, S. M. Garvey, H. C. Roberts, L. G. Metcalf and O. P. Myers, were seated in a half circle on the stage. The following program was rendered: Invocation—Dr. Robert W. Funnis; Vocal Solo "Hymns of the Witches" (Casson)—Miss Bonnie Sims; Oration and Salutatory—Wanted a Man—John H. Maxwell; Instrumental Duet—Valse Brillante.

(M. Moszkowski)—Misses Gertrude Smith and Emma Metcalf. Oration and Valedictory, "Air Castles"—Miss Gertrude Chioe Sims. Vocal Solo "Love is a Song" (Sans Souci). "When the Wild Rose Blooms" (August Bungert)—Miss Itha Rhoades.

Reading Selected—Mrs. H. J. Durrell. Presentation of Diplomas—Mrs. J. W. D. Myers, president of the board of education. Dr. Emily delivered the invocation. Salutatory Address.

The next on the program was a pretty little solo, "Hearts of the Witches" by Miss Bonnie Sims, sister of the valedictorian, which was well sung and received much applause. Miss Sims was accompanied at the piano by Miss June Myers. The salutatory address on the subject, "Wanted a Man," by John Maxwell, was a good oration and was well delivered in a distinct and entertaining manner.

The instrumental duet by Misses Gertrude Smith and Emma Metcalf was well rendered and a very pretty selection. Miss Smith is a musician of rare ability and one of which Illiopolis has long been proud, and Miss Metcalf, one of her music pupils is making rapid strides in acquiring a good musical education.

The oration entitled "Air Castles," by Miss Gertrude Chioe Sims who was valedictorian of the class, was well presented and splendidly delivered.

Miss Sims has a splendid voice and had a sweet and entertaining variety of holding the large audience spell bound listening to the theme which has taken up much of her time of late and which has received the best of preparation. She was attired in a pretty dainty graduating dress of cream silk and wool trimmed in lovely cream insertion, and carried tea roses—the class flower.

Miss Ethel Shrewsbury sang two pretty selections, viz: "Love is a Song," and "When the Wild Rose Blooms," in a charming and "highly" cultivated voice. Miss Clara Allison of Decatur played the piano accompaniment for both selections, which were highly appreciated. The reading by Mrs. B. J. Dorrell, who is an aunt of the young lady graduate, was a fine selection and a rare treat as Mrs. Dorrell is an educationist of rare ability and central Illinois known. Her selection was greatly enjoyed by every one present.

Dr. J. W. Myers, president of the board of education, presented the diplomas to the two graduates in a pleasing, well worded speech, which he is so very capable of doing.

Many beautiful and expensive gifts were received by the graduates, consisting of fine books, jewelry, money, the china, souvenirs and spoons.

Banquet Given Graduates.

Thursday evening the Illiopolis high school was "at home" to the graduates. Teachers, members of the board of education and their wives and the graduates of the school, at the Masonic reception and banquet hall which is directly above the opera house, and the event is one that will live long in the memories of those who were permitted to attend this social function.

The evening was spent in a social way, a part of the time being taken up with games and music and, last but not least, dainty refreshments, consisting of a variety of cakes, lemonade and ice cream in both crimson and gold, the class colors, were daintily served in the banquet hall. L. G. Metcalf acted as toastmaster for the occasion, and short talks also were made by Dr. J. W. D. Myers, president of the board of education, Professor H. H. Kirkpatrick and Miss Bernice Nelson. Those present, including a large number of townspeople, departed for their various homes at a late hour, wishing that all good gifts might fall to the lot of the graduates, and declaring "the members of the Illiopolis high school up to date and jolly entertainers."

Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. Have the Heart, the Kidneys as well, have their controlling, or inside, nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for blotting, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Got Disorderly on Their Way Home.

Negroes on Interurban Special Made Things Hum.

At 2 15 o'clock Friday morning a car load of the colored population of Springfield arrived home on a special interurban car from Decatur, where they had been attending a female negro minstrel show, says the Springfield Register. They had, some of them, become so highly elated by the sights they had seen that they were unable to hold their joyful feelings, and some who had been imbibing in fire water in the interurban city east of here, proceeded to make noises much to the annoyance of sleepers in the vicinity.

One big burly negro pulled out of his pocket a revolver, and feeling very good and in fine spirits, blazed away with all his might. The report was heard in the business district of the city, and caused much excitement. The negroes were raising a large sized rumpus a short time later, without respect to the ones who lived in the neighborhood or for anybody else. All were able to make their get-away without police interference, even though they made a very disagreeable celebration with fire water and fire arms.
